

Olney Raft Race Disclaimer – to be signed by all team members

I hereby accept that I am entering the raft race at my own risk. The Olney Group (TOG) will not be held liable for any injury, illness or loss howsoever caused. I understand that the river contains pollutants such as phosphates, nitrates, algae toxins, Weil's Disease, and possible agricultural run-off and sewage discharge containing Escherichia coli (E. coli) and Intestinal enterococci (IE).

You are advised to:

- cover any open wounds or abrasions with a waterproof dressing
- avoid swallowing water
- seek medical attention for any cuts or abrasions sustained during the race
- wash your hands with soap and water ASAP after the race
- seek medical advice if you feel unwell in the days following the race
